

Invasive Species Spring 2010 Update

Both the phragmites around the lake and the eurasian water milfoil in the lake were treated in the fall of 2009. We expect to see good results and an aquatic vegetative survey using gps points will be done this spring to confirm the results. The first treatment of the ewm will be in early summer and post treatment survey will be done. If necessary, additional treatments will be done.